

Notice of Intent to Take Language Exam

Department of Political Science
University of California, Irvine

Instructions:

1. When you are ready to take your language exam, locate a political science professor who knows the language who agrees to test you.
2. Language exams normally involve translation into English of a selection from a scholarly article or source material. This includes some exact translation and summary. Usually, you are allowed use of a dictionary, but limited time.
3. Submit this form to the Graduate Director, and proceed as indicated in the response.

Student Name: _____

Last

First

Middle

Language in which the exam is to be taken: _____

Proposed date of exam: _____

_____ I have found someone to examine me.

Name of proposed examiner: _____

_____ I have been unable to find an examiner.

Name(s) of person(s) who will not/cannot "serve:"

Response:

_____ Go ahead with examiner you have found

_____ Try these suggested examiners: _____

_____ See me

_____ Other: _____

Graduate Director: _____

Date: _____